

Nathaniel Gray

LGBTQ Empathy Mentor, Facilitator and Advocate

The Proud Path is a compassionate and education forward approach to understanding the queer community, and why your support changes lives.

"Nathaniel is a genuine, in the moment, and spontaneous speaker. He's clearly done the research, but he's not just book smart. He takes the dry data and makes it interesting. His words come from the soul."

-Louise Cohen-Silver, PhD
Private School Administrator

Coming out isn't a single step from the closet.
Coming out is a daily ritual on the Path to Pride.

-Nathaniel Gray

Lecture topics include:

Decoding LGBTQ+

It can seem like a lot of letters, but when you think of them as people, it makes much more sense.

Supporting the LGBTQ+ Child

"I know I support my child, but how do I show it?"

What to say, and what not to say, to show support.

Empathizing with the LGBTQ+ Experience

The goal as an adult isn't to understand an LGBTQ+ child, it is to show them that you are understanding.

The 4 Spectrums of Gender and Sexuality

We all operate on 4 different spectrums of gender and sexuality all of the time... yes, even you!

LGBTQ Inclusivity in Class Curriculum

Visibility in education is powerful and validating. Do LGBTQ+ youth see themselves in your curriculum?

"Nathaniel's effervescent compassion and heart is clear in everything he does. When applied to his Life Work, helping advance LGBT awareness, rights, and community, it is nothing short of miraculous and moving. I have learned and grown personally and professionally through knowing Nathaniel."
